

Ch. 5 Blood Type

Edward asked Bella to sit with him at lunch. Gasp. Oh the drama. Sorry - it is a bit melodramatic, Bella is getting unglued. Edward talks to Bella - bunny with pancake on head kind of stuff. Edward ditches biology class where they test blood types. Hmmm. Wonder why? Bella gets faint at sight of blood - of course Edward appears to carry her to the nurse! Turns out, Bella can smell blood and that is what makes her ill. (did I mention she has a very pale complexion?). Her ability to smell blood surprises Edward. Edward manipulates the situation to cut Gym and drive Bella home in his Volvo. Playing DeBussy on CD - sure 😊. Talking - both 17yr old juniors. Discussion of family in car parked in Bella's driveway. End of chapter.
