

Ch. 9 - Theory

After dinner, Edward and Bella driving in car, still talking. Edward also tracks by scent. Edward can read minds — but not Bella's. Bella tells Edward she thinks he is a vampire. Edward admits it. He never sleeps. He "usually" doesn't hunt people — but is dangerous to be alone with. He must stay out of sunlight. They are both anxious when not with the other. Drives Bella back to house in Forks. Agrees to meet in school next day. Bella goes to sleep, she knows 3 things:

1. Edward is a vampire.
2. Part of Edward wants her blood.
3. She loves Edward.
